The board of directors of the Company (the “Board”) wishes to inform shareholders of the Company (the “Shareholders”) and potential investors that the Group is expected to record a significant increase in consolidated net profit of the Group for the six months ended 30 June 2013 (the “Interim Period”) as compared with that for the corresponding period in 2012.

The significant increase in the net profit of the Group for the Interim Period was mainly attributable to the net effect of derecognition of certain of the Group’s assets and liabilities arising from (i) the cancellation of the Convertible Bonds of the Company issued to Taiwan Micro Display Corp. at the book value following the completion of a very substantial disposal on 5 March 2013; and (ii) the cancellation of the Convertible Bonds of the Company issued to China Eagle Development Limited (“China Eagle”) and Fairtime International Limited at the book value, and the cancellation of the outstanding Promissory Notes issued by a subsidiary of the Company to China Eagle following the judgment handed down in favour of the Group in the High Court Action 1660 of 2012. Such cancellations were previously disclosed in the Company’s announcements dated 28 February 2013 and 20 June 2013.

As the Company is in the process of finalizing the audited interim results of the Group for the Interim Period, the information contained in this announcement is based on the preliminary assessment of the information currently available and the consolidated management accounts of the Group, which are not confirmed or audited by the Company’s auditors. The audited interim results announcement of the Group for the Interim Period is expected to be disclosed before the end of August 2013.
